

Study Abroad Scholarship Acceptance Agreement

This agreement serves as a binding contract between the applicant, hereafter referred to as "Student" and the Roane State Community College International Education Department, hereafter referred to as "Association". By signing this agreement, the Student accepts the International Education Student Fee scholarship and agrees to adhere to the following requirements. The Student further understands that a violation of the following requirements may result in a termination of any future International Education scholarships and may require reimbursement.

Student Terms

The Student is being awarded the aforementioned scholarship for the express purpose of participating in an international educational course offered or approved by the Association. To receive the scholarship, the Student promises to do the following:

- Participate in a an International Education course/study abroad program, including travelling with the group
- Receive a passing grade upon completion of the International Education course
- Behave according to the Association's Code of Conduct

Association Terms

The Association will award the Student with the scholarship, paid directly into the international education course fund in the name of the Student.

Any Student who withdraws from a RSCC program or a TnCIS program for any reason after the published payment deadline may be required to repay the scholarship. In addition, any Student who participates in a RSCC or TnCIS program and whose conduct/behavior necessitates disciplinary action and/or who fail to pass the course(s) for which they are enrolled during that program, may be required to repay the scholarship.

Scholarship repayment is a decision left to the sole discretion of the Association and Roane State Community College. If repayment is required, a hold will be placed on the Student's account at Roane State until repayment of scholarship has been made. The Student will not receive grades, transcripts, or be allowed to register for future terms.

I have read, understand and agree to comply with the above.
